ARCHDIOCESE NEWS

Around the Diocese

Help for Haiti: Our sister parish in Haiti is in need of help. They have requested school supplies for their preschool and elementary school children. They need everything from pencils, color paper, other usual school supplies as well as backpacks, and school sweaters for boys and girls. Since it is so close to Christmas we may also want to send a few toys for the children but the emphasis should be on school supplies. The Women's Guild will be collecting the supplies for until November 22nd. Please bring your supplies in and drop them into the boxes that will be in the Narthex.

Discernment Retreat: Ignatius House will be having a Discernment Retreat on December 29 and 30. The retreat includes talks by priests and seminarians, a panel discussion, and time for prayer and reflection. Archbishop Gregory will join them for Mass. If you know of a man (or men) at least 18 years of age who is interested, please call Sally Scardasis 404-978-2779.

Immaculate Conception Academy: The Catholic Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, the oldest Church in Atlanta, is in search of anyone who has former ties to the Church. A homecoming social is being planned for Sunday, April 18, 2010. Please forward any information to the parish office at

The Archdiocese of Atlanta's Young Adult Ministry is excited to join in the Celebration of the XXIV World Youth Day in Madrid, Spain, in August 2011 preceded by Days in the Diocese in Barcelona, Spain. We've already begun the planning and preparation in anticipation of this amazing gathering with His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI. Our office will lead a pilgrimage group of 60 pilgrims for this incredible universal celebration of our Catholic faith. The Final Purification, Or Purgatory

Catechism of the Catholic Church

- 1030 All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.
- 1031 The church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned.⁶⁰⁴ The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speak of a cleansing fire.⁶⁰⁵

As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that Whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come.⁶⁰⁶

- 1032 This teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore (Judas Maccabeus) Made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sins."⁶⁰⁷ From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific Vision of God.⁶⁰⁸ The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead:

Let us help and commemorate them. If Job's sons were purified by their father's sacrifice, why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them some consolation? Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and to offer our prayers for them.⁶⁰⁹

~ NOVENA ~

The Memory of Our Departed Loved Ones

"When we love, we remember; and this memory, the effect of love, is not a barren thought. It resolves itself into DEEDS for the loved one. Why, when sorrow is united with faith, should not our sad memories resolve themselves into sentiments sweet and precious to the soul? To recall into the features, the accents, the manners and the sentiments of a loved one is still to see him, to hear him, to touch him and to associate him with the joys and sorrows which he formerly shared." - Gergeres

EIGHTH DAY

Despite the sorrowful farewells and vows of undying remembrance, the dead are all too soon universally Forgotten: "Forgotten is all my life, which never a word recalls; forgotten is my name which no one utters; Forgotten is my tomb, which no one visits; forgotten is my death, which no one mourns."

Prayer: Our Father, 3 Hail Mary's, Gloria, De Profundis.

Oh God, Who hast commanded us to honor our father and our mother, in Thy souls of my parents. Forgive them Their sins, and grant that I may see them face to face amid the joys of life everlasting. Through Christ our Lord.
AMEN.

NOVENA

NINTH DAY

The just die members of the Church and so continue. They remain united with us as well as with God by faith, hope and charity; therefore we should assist them as one member assists another.

Prayer: Our Father, 3 Hail Mary's, Gloria, De Profundis.

O Lord Jesus Christ, by Thy terrible agony in the Garden, we beseech Thee to have pity on the Souls in Purgatory, particularly the soul who has the most to suffer through us. Deliver it from the torments, that it may join the heavenly throng in forever glorifying Thee.

TENTH DAY

The soul that we release from Purgatory is under a particular obligation to us, both because of the singular benefit it receives from entering all the sooner into the glory, and also because of the terrible sufferings from which it is delivered. Thus it is bound to obtain for its benefactors perpetual graces and blessings.

Prayer: Our Father, 3 Hail Mary's, Gloria, De Profundis.

O Lord Jesus, by the merits of the sorrows of Thy Virgin Mother, release from Purgatory the soul that is dearest to Thee. Place it today in Heaven, that in union with the angels and Thy Blessed Mother it may forever praise Thee.

ELEVETH DAY

St. Francis de Sales tells us; "Devotion to the souls in Purgatory contains in itself all the works of mercy, which super naturalized by a spirit of faith, should merit us Heaven"

Prayer: Our Father, 3 Hail Mary's, Gloria, De Profundis.

O Lord Jesus Christ, deliver the souls of the faithful departed from the flames of hell, and let Thine angels bring them into the holy light. We offer Thee, O Lord, a sacrifice of prayer and praise, accept them in behalf of all life everlasting with Thee in Heaven.

TWELFTH DAY

They are not strangers who implore our help— they are our own: our parents, brothers and friends. They are the devoted hearts who loved us so tenderly and for us so earnestly toiled and suffered. Now that they are gone from our midst, does not our affection in the past?

Prayer: Our Father, 3 Hail Mary's, Gloria, De Profundis.

O Lord Jesus Christ, have compassion on Thy Church suffering. Temper Thy justice with pity and open the gates of Heaven for the souls in Purgatory, that they may praise and glorify Thee forever.
AMEN

THIRTEENTH DAY

St. Ambrose tells us: "All that we give through charity to the souls in Purgatory is changed into grace for us, and after our death we will find the merit of it increased a hundredfold.

Prayer: Our Father, 3 Hail Mary's, Gloria, De Profundis.

O Lord Jesus Christ, grant to the souls of the faithful departed, the full remission of their sins. Be mindful, most merciful Savior, of that soul in Purgatory who was most devoted to Thee in the Holy Eucharist. Shorten the moment of his deliverance, that he may glorify Thee, and aid me in my journey toward eternity.

FOURTEENTH DAY

Prayers for the faithful departed are more acceptable to God than prayers for the living, for suffering souls are in the greatest need and cannot help themselves.

Prayer: Our Father, 3 Hail Mary's, Gloria, De Profundis.

O Lord Jesus Christ, shower down on us Thy divine graces and blessings. Unite our will to Thine, and make our prayers more acceptable to Thee, and more beneficial to the souls in Purgatory who cry out, "Have pity on me, for the Hand of God has touched me."
